

Orona

Press kit

Orona, a leading European business group in vertical lifting

Orona is a leading European business group in vertical lifting. It delivers value to its customers through its platform of products and services covering the design, manufacture, installation, maintenance, modernization, refurbishment and replacement of elevators and escalators for all market segments.

Through its pragmatic and relevant innovation, its vertical transport solutions encompass cutting-edge techniques in people mobility management, optimization of available space, user experience and safety in the use of the elevator.

Its vertical transport solutions encompass cutting-edge techniques in people mobility management.

//////////

Committed to sustainability

The organizational commitment to environmental sustainability made Orona the first elevator company in the world to obtain the ISO 14006 eco-design certificate, and its corporate headquarters, the first to be qualified as an extraordinary point of innovation in Spain by BREEAM International

We focus on people

Its organizational model, committed to people, is made up of a team of 5,400 professionals, present in 12 European countries where it operates throughout the value chain of the elevation sector.

Its production facilities are the ones with the highest production capacity in complete elevators in Europe, where it has a park of 250,000 elevators installed.

1 out of every 10 new elevators in Europe, is Orona

+100
countries

801
Million €

Orona is present in more than 100 countries around the world through an extensive network of qualified distributors.

At the end of 2019, its turnover was 801 million euros.

- 250,000 elevators in the world
with Orona technology
- 30 companies in 12 countries
in Europe and America.
- More than 100 countries
install Orona products.
- Made up by a team of 5,400 professionals.
- First company in the elevation sector worldwide
to be certified in Ecodesign, according to ISO 14006.
- First company in production capacity of complete elevators in Europe.

Orona supports the SDG

